

Staying Connected

Staying Connected

Find out how the u3a movement is staying connected over the coming weeks

Over this challenging year, u3a members across the regions, islands and nations of the United Kingdom have found creative ways to reach out to each other and stay connected. Over the coming weeks– this is more important than ever. Here are just some of the ways the movement is connecting.

Festive Newsletters

Over this time, the movement's UK wide newsletters will have two special extra editions – one on Christmas Day and one on New Years Day- delivering a special message from our CEO Sam Mauger.

Sign up to the newsletter

Festive Radio Podcast

There is a special festive edition of our u3a Radio Podcast available from 6am on 25th December 2020.

Listen to it on our u3a youtube channel

Twelve Days of u3a

Our social media channels will be buzzing with members of u3a sharing their stories from the year gone and their hopes for the year ahead. Join the conversation on twitter, Instagram and facebook.

Learning Pages

For more things to do please go to our learning pages which are filled with photography, crafts, puzzles and much more.